NOTICE

It has been observed that despite several notices and repeated warnings, students continue making payments to college account by Debit/Credit cards. It is hereby notified that payments to college account by Debit/Credit cards are restricted. College office will not entertain/accept such payment since it is observed that there are huge delays in realizing such transactions and are difficult to trace in case of a failure. Students are encouraged to make use of the challan facility at the college office instead.

It is also notified that refund in case of multiple payments to college account due to debit/credit card payments or for any other reason arising from student end, will be done only once in 3 months.

This is implemented with immediate effect.
