ISTE One Year Anniversary and Science Day Celebration

ISTE Students' Chapter CETKR celebrated its first anniversary along with the science day celebration on 3rd march 2020, at the main seminar hall. The inauguration programme was conducted from 11am to 12:30 pm. We had completed our one year journey through knowledge, entertainment, hard work etc. Our programme was inaugurated by our Principal Dr. Vinod Sir. Our faculty advisor, Mr. Sujith Sir conveyed his best wishes. We had an audience of all the HoDs along with the ISTE members who came to be a part of the celebration.

Later on we had a cake cutting ceremony to celebrate the sweetness of our one year journey. The cake was cut by the principal along with the teachers, present chairperson Vinayak Sathyanath and former Chairperson Vishal Ravikumar and students.

The second session was a brain storming session which was handled by our chairperson with the help of the new execom from 2pm to 4pm. The students had great fun. The students found the session tricky as well as a great entertainment. A winner was selected from the competition and was rewarded.

ICON OF THE YEAR COMPETITION 2020

ISTE STUDENTS' CHAPTER CETKR conducted an independent online competition called ICON OF THE YEAR. The motive was to encourage the college hero's to keep up their good work and also to encourage the students with a fun activity during the lockdown period. The competition was first announced on our official instagram handle on 3rd march 2020. The competition was conducted with two rounds at round one candidates are given certain task and are further shortlisted based on their performance. there were 61 suggestions out of which 22 were selected as participants for the first round. The 5 task given to these 22 candidates were evaluated by our teachers. 5 students shortlisted by the teachers would now be sent to the next round which was to seek students opinion through vote. The winner was awarded by a sum of 2500RS and certificate. The result announcement was done by famous director Girish A.D on his official page on 14 may 2020. The main reason for competition to be this successful was because of the fact that students were free during lockdown we utilized the time planned the event and it became great success.

PODCAST: TALES OF CETKR

A podcast channel called "TALES OF CETKR" was introduced on the official youtube channel of ISTE STUDENTS' CHAPTER CETKR. The poster was released through our instagram page on 30 august 2020. The official release of our channel was on 1 september 2020, we coordinated a program for our seniors who have no choice but to leave the institution after their completion of the engineering program. Even though they were hesitant to go they still have to, that was our theme. So as a tribute we organised our first ever podcast "NJAN POVULA". About 10 of our seniors joined our podcast and made it a huge success. We got more than 1000 views in less than 6 hours. The podcast was for about half an hour duration.

PODCAST : ADIOS 2020

A podcast namely “ADIOS 2020” was introduced on 31-12-2020 on our youtube channel. It was based on the pandemic situation we have been suffering .”The covid crisis affected each and every living being. The academic section for every school and college were conducted through online mode. Everything changed completely. Stepping outside without a mask was impossible and the situation has been worsening day by day . Let us hope that this New Year 2021 becomes a relief for everyone to come out of the pandemic situation. Let us bring hope and faith. Let us follow rules and take necessary precaution to fight against the crisis .Let us pray to the almighty for a better future”.
